

Adaptive Sports Abuse Prevention Training Conference

Cosponsored and featuring a keynote presentation by: The U.S. Center for SafeSport
Colorado Springs, CO

ASAP is a sexual abuse prevention training program for staff and volunteers of adaptive sports organizations. It is one of the few abuse prevention education programs that addresses the unique realities of athletes with disabilities.

You will learn to:

- Recognize abuse
- Interrupt unsafe or inappropriate interactions that could escalate to abuse
- Think critically and productively about creating safe spaces
- Report sexual abuse and collaborate with a local rape crisis center

This two day conference will qualify you to teach the ASAP curriculum in your organization.

Conference Registration is FREE OF CHARGE

Conference is hybrid – attend in person or over Zoom.

Travel reimbursement is available for adaptive sports programs that reach athletes from underserved communities.

Conference Registration Link: ASAP Training Conference Registration Survey \(surveymonkey.com\)

For more information, contact Shay Orent, Program Coordinator at:

sorent@impactboston.org or 781-388-4365 visit the ASAP web page ASAP | Impact Boston.

This conference is made possible by a Christopher & Dana Reeve Foundation Quality of Life Grant.